Rollingstone State School

Welcome to term 4 for 2014! This term is always the busiest term of the year, finalising everything, writing reports and preparing for next year!
We have a few events coming up for parents of students that will be joining us for prep in 2015. The first is a Prep Information evening for parents on the 5 November. The evening will start at 6.00pm and will go until 7.00pm. Enrolment forms will be available on the night, so come along and find out everything that you need to know about routines and procedures for Prep!

We will be hosting two Prep open days this term on November 13 and 27 (these dates coincide with Playgroup meeting at our school). The new prep students should be at school for a 9.00 start with the program finishing at 11.00. Parents are welcome to stay for the morning. We look forward to meeting you all.

Reading has been our focus all year and we have had some amazing student results. Half of our school is already at the high benchmark that they are expected to have achieved by the end of the year. We are celebrating all things books and reading for our annual Book Week.

We will be having a costume parade on 6 November!
Congratulations to our Junior Leo group (with the assistance of President John, Lion Jake and Lion Jan) for completing their first service project. They constructed a new garden in the school grounds to beautify an area between the classrooms.

October 31 is World Teachers Day! (which must be all about Rollingstone State School because our school has the best teachers in the WORLD!)

Our annual awards night will be held on the 10 December. Everyone is welcome!
