PRINCIPAL'S REPORT -

- Learning - In Semester 1 81% of student achieved a 'C' or higher in English, Maths and Science. Our goal for Semester 2 is 85%.
- We are also pushing for more students to achieve 'A' and 'B' results.
- Thank you to parents for listening to your child read. This is so important. Please also make sure they understand what they are reading by engaging in conversation about it.
- School – Events this term include:
 - Leos Breakfast-July 21
 - Cancer Bike Ride- July 27
 - Red Track – August 7
 - NBSHS Transition Day – August 9
 - Indonesian Independence Day – August 17
 - Bookweek Parade – August 24
 - Pineapple Festival – September 9
 - Beach Walk – September 15
- The school has now been registered for Sporting School which means we can apply for grants to pay for sports coaching and sporting equipment.
- Facilities -The new toilet block is now open.
- Thank you to all the staff for organising all the new books from Helen's Hill and Bambaroo SS.
- School Opinion Surveys will be available for year 4, 5 and 6 from July 31 – August 25.
- Workforce – As yet we have no replacement for Jeanette following her retirement.
- Safety of students is our number one priority so all teachers will be participating in a professional development session later this term on asthma and anaphylaxis.
- Please feel free to speak to Keith regarding the budget.

Motion: That the Principal's report be received.

Moved: Keith Poulter

Seconded: Ian Dow
